1. Lamb of God, our shep-herd, help us live like you, As that God-like mys - t'ry,
2. Those who chose to shep-herd need to own their worth, Love the way God made them,
3. God, you call each per - son to this car - ing role, Shar - ing and af - firm - ing
4. Through your wounds you heal us, ho - ly Lamb of God; In your cross you show us sheep and shep-herd too; For we all need to give and to re - ceive choose the path of growth, Own all their pow'r, leave guilt and fear be - hind all that makes us whole. May we not place our - selves a - bove the rest, love's great fi - nal word. Help us to find new care be - yond life's pain

In our times of laugh - ter and our times of need.
 And en - joy with rev - 'rence, bo - dy, spir - it, mind.
 But as e - qual part - ners share our spir - it's quest.
 And as wound - ed heal - ers share love once a - gain.
