

O God How Can There Be One World?

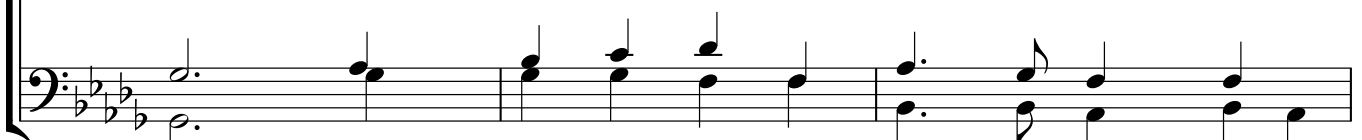

Tune: KLINE
W. Daniel Landes

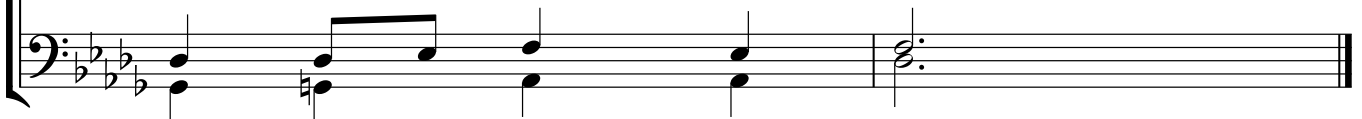

1. O - God how can there be one world When there are ma - ny
2. Must we for - ev - er judge all views As ei - ther right or
3. If we but look in - side our depths We find a com - plex
4. Be - yond this space of ma - ny forms Your mys - t'ry, God, we
5. O Wis - dom, far be - yond the known, Your heart is ten - der ways Of mor - als and of pol - i - tics, Of wrong Or are there di - verse ways to sing The world Where mul - ti - tudes of shad - ows dance And meet, A flame seen through a dark - ened glass, A grace, The grace which helps us glimpse with love Your dog - ma and of praise?

 pil - grim's wist - ful song?
 im - ag - es un - fold.
 light for trav' - lers' feet.
 pre - sence in each face.

Alternative Tune: WESTMINSTER. WOV 71, MHB 73, NS 102.

Text © William Livingstone Wallace. Music © W. Daniel Landes.