Deep in Our Minds 45

1 Deep in our minds live man - y tribes,
2 Our in - ner clans may cast a - side
3 Must we for - ev - er live en - slaved,
4 If we but dare re - lease the fears 5 O in - ner Christ of self - es - teem, each with its walled sur - round; lines that de - note the cas - tles and fie - ry swords, yet still re - tain ex - bound by our tri - bal thought? Can wis - dom ev - er locked in our walled a - bodes, God's love will free our light for the path we roam, you gent - ly bid us mea - sured space where wel - come may be found.

clus - ive - ness in ges - tures and in words.
grow be - yond the truths the tribes have taught?
minds to move be - yond the an - cient codes.
leave our walls and make your Way our home.
